The Vice-President Speaks

Dear Visual Artists:

Another club year has disappeared in a flash. We had some wonderful demonstrations this year. We witnessed loads of fresh new ideas. Even if it was mediums you might never consider exploring, there is always something to glean from a demonstration. It could be as simple as reassurance you are on the right path for your own art to learning how to overcome that problem that has plagued you for months or years. You might have caught the passion for a new type of artistic expression.

Now it is that time in our club year where we come together for fellowship, fun, and the future. What will be the face of Visual Artists of Cedar Hill in 2009-2010? The future is literally in your hands. Your voice counts so please make it known on May 21.

Previously the last meeting has been a salad supper. If you would like to bring a salad to share, please do so; however, do not let that keep you from the meeting. There will be food provided.

There is no project for the month of May, but the mini-show will happen. That is if you bring the art. Let us end the official club year with an overwhelming mini-show.

Happy creating,
Marca Sue DeLacerda

PLEASE READ:

Traditionally the May meeting is a very under attended meeting. There is no demonstration. The evening is focused on the election of new officers. Your nominations committee has pulled together a slate that really deserves your attention and participation. If you have the desire to be an officer of the organization, please come to the meeting. Nominations will also be accepted from the floor. Your vote counts.

Come enjoy food, fellowship, and help shape the future of the Visual Artists of Cedar Hill. It is vital that every voice is heard and every idea put forth.

I have yet to read an article regarding artists and their growth professionally and artistically that did not recommend being an active member of some artist community. We are here to help each other learn, grow, and promote the arts in general. Please, share in the fun. We need your energy.
